Roman Soldier Day

As part of our learning journey: 'An Italian Adventure', the children had the opportunity to spend a day training as Roman Soldiers. We had a very special visitor who had jumped forward in time to train our new recruits! The day was so exciting and as well as learning how to march, the children learnt commands in Latin. Such as- Sin, dex, sin, dex which means left, right, left, right.

Being a Roman soldier was a dangerous job and soldiers had to carry heavy equipment and handle dangerous weapons all whilst marching for miles and miles. To get a feel for this everyone had the chance to try on armour and hold swords, javelins and knives, giving them a taste of what life would have been like.

At the end of the day the children put their new found skills to the test and practised the 'Turtle' formation manoeuvre whilst under attack.
